HOWARD W. CONYERS
DIRECTOR

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

On behalf of the Administrative Office of the Courts and the Judiciary of Oklahoma and in accordance with the provisions of Title 20, Section 16.11, Oklahoma Statutes, the Oklahoma Judiciary Annual Report and Statistical Appendix is presented to members of the Oklahoma Legislature and other interested persons. The purpose of this publication is to provide detailed caseload information and financial data for the Trial and Appellate Courts along with an overview of the judicial branch of Oklahoma state government for Fiscal Year 1989.

The Supreme Court continues to experience an increase in case filings. Due to increases in the number of staff members for both the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, a reorganization of responsibilities between these courts, and diligent efforts, considerable progress has been achieved in decreasing the number of cases pending at the appellate level. If this progress is to continue, additional professional and support personnel for the Appellate Courts is imperative.

The number of cases filed in our Trial Courts has declined. This decline, which led to the lowest level of filings in several years, has resulted in a significant decrease in the amount of court-generated funds available for the operation of the Trial Courts. Additional appropriated funds may be required to maintain the present level of service and access for our citizens.

Enactment of legislation creating the position of Secretary/Bailiff was a significant event, affecting not only the efficiency but also the morale of the Judiciary. This legislation creates a framework for providing secretarial and clerical assistance for the trial judges of this state. We sincerely appreciate this expression of support for the Judges of Oklahoma.

None of the accomplishments of this past year would have been possible without the leadership, support and assistance furnished by Chief Justice John B. Doolin, Chief Justice Rudolph Hargrave, the Justices of the Oklahoma Supreme Court, the Judges and Court Clerks of this state and the staff of the Administrative Office of the Courts. I extend my thanks and appreciation to each and every one of these persons.

Respectfully submitted,

Howard W. Conyers

The Oklahoma Judiciary Annual Report for Fiscal Year 1989 and Statistical Appendix, printed by the Office of Public Affairs, Central Printing Division, are issued by the Administrative Director of the Courts as authorized by 20 O.S. 1981, §16.11. Seven Hundred (700) copies of the Annual Report and Five Hundred Fifty (550) copies of the Appendix have been prepared and distributed at a cost of $6,559.00. Copies of both have been deposited with the Publications Clearinghouse of the Oklahoma Department of Libraries.

THE JUDICIARY

Court Structure

The third branch of the government, the judiciary, is constitutionally vested with powers which are separate and distinct from the executive and legislative branches of government. The current court structure was adopted in 1969 by constitutional amendment. Jurisdiction of the courts in Oklahoma is divided into four categories:

1) Courts of last resort;
2) Intermediate appellate courts;
3) Courts of general jurisdiction; and
4) Courts of limited jurisdiction.

Courts of Last Resort

Two courts fall into this category — the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals. In addition to having jurisdiction over all civil appeals, the Supreme Court has general superintending control over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards created by law, with the exception of the Court on the Judiciary and the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. The Court of Criminal Appeals has appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases.

Intermediate Appellate Courts

The Court of Appeals, created in 1970, is Oklahoma's intermediate appellate court. Jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals is prescribed by the Supreme Court. The Court of Appeals hears and decides cases assigned to it by the Supreme Court.

Courts of General Jurisidiction

In Oklahoma, the court of general jurisdiction is the District Court. The state is divided into twenty-six district court judicial districts. The District Court has unlimited original jurisdiction over all justiciable matters.

Courts of Limited Jurisdiction

Oklahoma has four courts of limited jurisdiction. The Court on the Judiciary, which was created by constitutional amendment in 1966, consists of a trial division and an appellate division. The Court on the Judiciary has jurisdiction over all proceedings filed against judges seeking their removal from office. The Workers' Compensation Court hears and determines claims brought by employees against employers for work-related injuries. The Court of Tax Review is comprised of three judges designated by the Governor to consider protests against tax levies. Municipal Courts hear prosecutions involving violations of municipal ordinances. Cities with populations in excess of 200,000 have municipal criminal courts of record. All other municipalities have courts not of record.

To assist the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in exercising the court's administrative authority over all inferior courts, the Constitution authorizes an Administrative Director of Courts and staff. The Administrative Office of the Courts works closely with the Supreme Court, and particularly the Chief Justice, in administering the judicial branch of government for the State of Oklahoma.

Supreme Court

The Oklahoma Constitution grants to the Supreme Court appellate jurisdiction in all civil cases, both at law and in equity. In the event a conflict arises between the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals regarding jurisdiction, the Supreme Court is constitutionally empowered to determine which court has jurisdiction. The Supreme Court has general superintending control and administrative authority over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards except for the Court on the Judiciary and the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. Additionally, the Supreme Court has the exclusive power and authority to discipline attorneys and pass upon the qualifications of all applicants for admission to the practice of law within the state.

The nine justices, one from each of the Supreme Court judicial districts, serve six-year terms. At the general election preceding the expiration of a term of office, a justice who desires to remain in office must file a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. If a majority of those voters casting ballots in a nonpartisan election vote in favor of retention, the justice will serve another term.

A vacancy occurring on the Supreme Court during a term of office is filled by gubernatorial appointment. The Judicial Nominating Commission provides the Governor with a list of nominees which have been selected by the Commission from applicants living in the appropriate Supreme Court judicial district. To be eligible to serve as a justice on the Supreme Court, an applicant must be at least thirty years of age, a qualified elector in his or her particular Supreme Court district for at least one year, and a licensed practicing attorney or judge for five years.

The Supreme Court selects a Chief Justice and Vice-Chief Justice who serve two-year terms. The Court also appoints a Clerk of the Supreme Court and an Administrative Director of the Courts, both of whom serve at the pleasure of the Supreme Court. James W. Patterson, as Clerk of the Supreme Court, is responsible for maintaining all records of the Supreme Court. The Administrative Director, Howard W. Conyers, assists the Chief Justice in his various administrative duties.

Court of Criminal Appeals

Jurisdiction of all criminal appeals rests exclusively with the Court of Criminal Appeals. The five-member court decides appeals from the District Courts and the Municipal Criminal Courts of Record.

The judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals are selected in the same manner as Supreme Court justices from five Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts. They serve six-year terms and are subject to a non-partisan statewide vote on their retention.

On January 9, 1989, two additional judges were added to this court to fill two newly-created Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts. Vacancies on the court are filled by gubernatorial appointments with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court serves as the ex officio Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Court of Appeals

The caseload of the Court of Appeals is comprised solely of civil appeals assigned by the Supreme Court. Final decisions of the Court of Appeals are not directly appealable to the Supreme Court; however, if a majority of the justices agree that certiorari should be granted, the decision by the Court of Appeals may be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Each of the 12 judges of the Court of Appeals is assigned by the Supreme Court to one of four permanent divisions, two of which sit in Tulsa County and two in Oklahoma County. Two judges serve from each of the six congressional districts in the state. In a nonpartisan election, if a majority of those who cast ballots vote in favor of retention, the judge will serve another term.

If a vacancy occurs on the Court of Appeals prior to the expiration of a term, the Governor appoints a successor. In making the appointment, the Governor relies upon the recommendation of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court also serves as Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

District Courts

The District Courts have unlimited original jurisdiction in all justiciable matters and the power of review in administrative actions designated by statute. In addition, appeals from Municipal Courts not of record are heard by the District Courts as trials de novo.

Oklahoma is divided into 26 District Court judicial districts. Each such district consists of an entire county or several contiguous counties. For the purposes of administration, the judicial districts are combined into nine judicial administrative districts. A district judge is selected as presiding judge by all the district and associate district judges within the judicial administrative district. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the presiding judge has general administrative authority and supervision over all courts within the district.

The District Courts consist of 71 district judges, 77 associate district judges and 60 special judges. District judges and associate district judges are elected for four-year terms in nonpartisan elections within their judicial districts. If a vacancy occurs in the position of district judge or associate district judge, the Governor appoints a replacement with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission. Special judges are appointed by the district judges of the judicial administrative district.

A District Court Clerk is elected from each county for a four-year term. Once elected, they serve as county officers and are responsible for maintaining all court records.

Pursuant to statute, a Trial Court Administrator is appointed to serve in the Oklahoma-Canadian Counties Judicial Administrative District and in the Tulsa-Pawnee Counties Judicial Administrative District. The Trial Court Administrator assists the presiding judge in the performance of all administrative duties. The Trial Court Administrator for the Oklahoma-Canadian Counties Judicial Administrative District is Robert M. Martin. The Trial Court Administrator for the Tulsa-Pawnee Counties Judicial Administrative District is Dave W. Hill.

Court on the Judiciary

The Court on the Judiciary consists of a trial division and an appellate division. The trial division is composed of nine members, eight of whom are district judges, senior in service and under the age of 60, and one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors. The appellate division is composed of two members of the Supreme Court, chosen by the Court; one member of the Court of Criminal Appeals, selected by the court; one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors; and five district judges senior in service and under the age of 65. Each division of the Court on the Judiciary selects its presiding judge.

Any justice or judge of any court is subject to removal from office or compulsory retirement by proceedings in the Court on the Judiciary. Jurisdiction of the trial division of the Court on the Judiciary may be invoked by a petition filed by the Supreme Court or the Chief Justice, the Governor, the Attorney General, the Executive Director of the Oklahoma Bar Association (upon direction by the Board of Governors), by resolution of the OBA House of Delegates, or by resolution of the House of Representatives of the State of Oklahoma. After a full hearing, the trial division renders its judgment. From any judgment of the trial division, the respondent or the prosecutor may appeal to the appellate division which may affirm, modify, or reverse the judgment.

Council on Judicial Complaints

The Council on Judicial Complaints was established by statute as the investigatory body for the Court on the Judiciary. The Council is empowered to investigate all complaints made against a member of the judiciary. The Council may dismiss a complaint or recommend that the matter be made the subject of proceedings before the Court on the Judiciary.

The Council consists of three members, with two being members of the Oklahoma Bar Association. They serve five-year terms. The Administrative Director of the Courts serves as ex officio secretary to the Council.

Judicial Nominating Commission

The Judicial Nominating Commission was created by passage of a Constitutional Amendment in 1967. The amendment provided that vacancies in certain judicial positions are to be filled by appointments by the Governor instead of through election.

When a vacancy in a judicial office occurs, the Nominating Commission is required to accept the applications, review, and submit at least three nominees to the Governor and the Chief Justice. The Governor, within sixty days of receipt of the nominees', appoints a person from the list of nominees submitted by the Commission.

The Judicial Nominating Commission consists of thirteen members. Six of the members are appointed by the Governor, and six members elected by the Oklahoma Bar Association. These appointments are selected from the six congressional districts. A thirteenth at-large member is appointed by the Commission.

During the fiscal year, the Nominating Commission screened approximately 188 applicants to fill judicial vacancies in the District Courts and the Workers' Compensation Court. The Administrative Office of the Courts assists the Nominating Commission in its duties.

Foster Care Review Board

Oklahoma has had a system of foster care review boards since 1981. These boards review the cases of children who have been adjudicated deprived and placed outside their home. Each board has at least five members and reviews the cases within forty-five days of initial placement, and thereafter at least once every six months. The board's findings and recommendations are made available to the court. Review boards also engage in other activites to promote permanency planning for children.

Oklahoma also has a State Foster Care Review Advisory Board, which oversees the implementation of the state review system. This eighteen-person board assists in the training of the review boards and functions as an advisory body for the courts and the legislature concerning statutes, court rules and procedures relating to foster care.

Canadian County Courthouse History

Canadian County, opened to non-Indian settlement by the Land Run of 1889, was designated County "Four" by the Organic Act of 1890. Following the opening of the Cheyenne-Arapaho lands in 1892, another tier of townships was added to the western border of the County.

The first Courthouse was a one-story frame livery stable which had been moved from Ft. Reno to El Reno in 1890. It served the County until 1901 when a three-story red brick building with a dome and statue was built. Between 1962 and 1964, the County constructed a new Courthouse in two phases. This modern style building was built around the three story old courthouse. Following the completion of the second structure, the old Courthouse was removed and parking was added in its space.

In 1988, a third Courthouse was added to house offices of the Judiciary, Court Clerk, Juvenile Services and the District Attorney. The new Courthouse is very spacious and beautiful.

Contributed by Clyde Gene Miller, Court Clerk of Canadian County, who has worked in all three of the actual courthouse buildings during his employment with Canadian County.

JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

Administrative Office of the Courts

As authorized by the constitution and by statute, the Supreme Court appoints an Administrative Director of the Courts to assist the Chief Justice in exercising his administrative authority within the judicial branch of government. The duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Office of the Courts are grouped into three divisions: financial services, court services and legal services.

• FINANCIAL SERVICES DIVISION •

Fiscal and personnel matters are handled by the Financial Services Division which is responsible for appropriated funding requests, budgets, accounting and payroll support for the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and District Courts. In performing its accounting function, the Financial Services Division receives and processes all expenditures from appropriated and dedicated funds, reconciles monthly statements of account and provides state-wide purchasing for the courts. In its personnel capacity, the Division provides the administrative, accounting and clerical services necessary to maintain a work force of approximately 500 judicial and nonjudicial personnel. This work force includes judges, trial court administrators, court reporters and secretaries for the District Courts, and justices, judges, judicial assistants, clerks, marshals, referees, secretaries and administrative staff for the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

• COURT SERVICES DIVISION •

The Court Services Division is responsible for a variety of services to the District and appellate courts of Oklahoma. The various functions include information systems and data processing (Oklahoma Court Information System), court fund accounting, audit, planning and budget assistance, a procedural reference service for court clerks, and statewide jury selection. The Division also performs statistical gathering and analysis on district and appellate court caseloads and district court financial status.

The primary objective of the Oklahoma Court Information System is to provide automated case management and tracking to the district and appellate courts in addition to the ancillary information processing necessary for administration and court operation. The system is presently being used for the processing of all civil and criminal matters in Oklahoma, Tulsa, Comanche, Cleveland, and Garfield Counties. A satellite processor is handling traffic matters in Noble County as a pilot project for use of personal cornputers in the medium and smaller sized courts. Plans are being completed to expand full case processing capability to five additional large counties, and traffic case processing in four counties where traffic cases represent a large portion of the county's caseload.

In the appellate courts, the Appellate Case Tracking System and Issue Tracking System provide data storage and retrieval capabilities for civil and criminal appeals. The system is also used in the Administrative Office for accounting, payroll, statistics, personnel, licensing and jury selection.

The Court Services Division implemented a Court Fund management and audit concept in 1989. This entails on-site visits to district court offices for purposes of consulting, problem solving and routine audit of Court Fund practices. Instructional seminars are regularly scheduled for procedural refreshers to existing personnel, and basic instrucion for new court officials in the management of the court and caseload accounting.

• LEGAL SERVICES DIVISION •

Due to the diversity of its duties, the Administrative Office of the Courts has contact with many groups both within and outside the court system. The Legal Services Division interacts with judges, court clerks, court reporters, legislators and the general public.

Supplying legal information to various people in the court system is a primary function of this division. This includes conducting legal research, and monitoring legislation affecting the courts as it progresses through the legislative process.

Through the Legal Services Division, the Administrative Office provides assistance to the Council on Judicial Complaints, the Judicial Nominating Commission, the Oklahoma Judicial Conference, the Assembly of Presiding Judges, the Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and the State Foster Care Review Advisory Board.

The newest section of the Legal Services Division is the Dispute Resolution System. Begun in November, 1985, this system has a statutory purpose of providing to all citizens of Oklahoma convenient access to fair, effective, inexpensive, and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes.

To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose, the System receives, in a revolving fund collected by all court clerks, $2 for every civil case filed in Oklahoma, and $5 from each party using the services of a volunteer mediator in a certified dispute resolution center.

The Administrative Director is charged with the duty of administering and supervising the local dispute resolution programs, encouraging and assisting in their establishment throughout Oklahoma, and with disbursing collected System monies to aid the centers with operational expenses.

Dispute Mediation Services

The Oklahoma Dispute Resolution System, which focuses on mediation services, began in November, 1985. The statutory purpose of the program is to provide, for all citizens of Oklahoma, convenient access to fair, effective, inexpensive and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes. Dispute mediation is an informal and effective way, with the aid of a neutral and trained third party, to reach an agreement in a dispute. Participation in the process is voluntary. Referrals to mediation may come from any community source, including court order. Mediation proceedings are confidential and may not be used in any later litigation. Both parties in the dispute participate in reaching an agreement. The mediating neutral party does not render a decision. Instead, he or she functions as a facilitator to encourage communication and creative problem solving in a safe, structured and positive manner. Mediators are trained by one of seven state certified dispute mediation trainers, approved by their local program directors, and certified by the Administrative Director of the Courts. There are 350 certified mediators located throughout the state. The types of conflicts that are often mediated are between: neighbors, family members, landlord and tenant, customer and merchant, farmer and creditor, employer and employee, roommates, friends, or victim and offender. To date, seventeen mediation programs have been certified. Five programs provide specialized services statewide and twelve are community programs providing services regionally. The Administrative Director is required to administer and supervise the System's dispute resolution programs, to encourage and assist in the establishment of new programs throughout Oklahoma, and to disburse collected System monies to aid the local centers with operational expenses. The Director is assisted by staff and a 15 member advisory board.

JUDICIAL FUNDING

Funding For The Courts

FUNDING SOURCES

Funding for the court system is derived from two sources. The primary source of funding is court generated funding from fines, fees and forfeitures. The secondary source of funding is state generated funding derived from taxes.

COURT GENERATED FUNDING

Court generated funding consists of fines, fees, and bond forfeitures collected by the 77 District Court Clerks and the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

At the district court level, revenues received are used for the local operations of the District Courts. These expenditures are for items such as juror and witness costs, supplies, utilities for space occupied by the courts, attorney fees for indigent defense, part-time bailiff and part-time court clerk employees, per diem court reporters, furniture, equipment purchases and equipment rentals. Additional expenditures include payments required by statute to be paid to the Judicial Retirement System, CLEET Fund, Dispute Resolution Fund and the County General Fund.

On a quarterly basis, each District Court Clerk files a report with the Administrative Office of the Courts that lists the local expenses and revenues and submits a deposit to the State Judicial Fund. The fees received by the Clerk of the Supreme Court are deposited directly into the State Judicial Fund. Two other sources of money for the State Judicial Fund are surplus funds transferred from the law libraries and court reporter license fees.

After payment of local court expenses, the balance of the State Judicial Fund is available for legislative appropriation to the District Courts. This appropriation pays the salaries and travel expenses of District Court judges and court reporters. Some direct costs of the Supreme Court are paid from the State Judicial Fund and require no legislative appropriation. These costs are: jury trials where the local court fund is insolvent, costs related to a criminal change of venue, attorney fees and expert witness fees for indigent defendants charged with first degree murder, expenses related to the Council on Judicial Complaints, and expenses of the State Board of Examiners of Official Shorthand Reporters.

STATE GENERATED FUNDING

Because court-generated revenues are not sufficient for all expenses of the state court system, some state-generated revenues must be provided through legislative appropriations. The funding trend for the Supreme Court and District Courts for the past five years has been toward increased dependence on court-generated funds.

The primary source of appropriated funding for the Supreme Court has historically been the General Revenue Fund, but with declining revenues, the funding has shifted to a mixture of General Revenue and Workers' Compensation Funds. The Supreme Court does not receive funding from the State Judicial Fund except for statutory requirements illustrated on page 50.

The primary source of funding for the District Courts is the State Judicial Fund. Projected receipts to the fund, in excess of anticipated statutory expenditures, are certified by the State Board of Equalization and appropriated to the District Courts. The Judicial Fund is not large enough to completely support the District Courts and additional appropriated funding is required from General Revenue and other funds.

JUDICIAL STATISTICAL SUMMARY

Statewide Statistics for District Courts

Included in this section are tables and graphs summarizing the caseload inventory of the District Courts for Fiscal Year 1989. Civil cases are categorized as general civil, domestic relations, small claims and probate. Criminal cases are either felony or misdemeanor.

These tables and graphs depict statewide totals. The Annual Report Statistical Appendix contains statistical data for each county and District Court judicial district.

Also included is a chart which ranks the District Court judicial districts according to population per authorized judgeships and cases filed per authorized judgeships.

The final chart in this section shows the total statewide cost of legal representation for indigents during the last four fiscal years. Payments are made at the state level from the State Judicial Fund to compensate attorneys who are appointed to represent indigents charged with Murder in the First Degree. At the local level, payments are made from the local court funds to public defender programs and for representation of indigents in criminal trials, criminal appeals and mental health proceedings.

The Oklahoma Judicial Conference

The Oklahoma Judicial Conference is an organization whose membership is comprised of active and retired members of the judiciary in the State of Oklahoma. The purpose of the Judicial Conference is to provide continuing judicial education and training to its members, assistance to the Legislature concerning matters affecting the trial courts, and foster communications among all levels of the state judiciary.

The Judicial Conference has three active committees. They are the Legislative, Program and Education, and Judges Helping Judges Committees.

The Oklahoma Judicial Conference meets biannually for educational programs and administrative responsibilities. The officers serve one year terms, assuming their responsibilities at the beginning of every calendar year.

Introduction

District Courts Statistical Information

The following pages contain the FY-89 caseload statistics for the 26 District Court judicial districts and the counties within each district. Six major categories of cases are reported: general civil, domestic relations, probate, small claims, felony and misdemeanor. For each of these categories, the number of cases filed, disposed of and pending is first presented, followed by a numerical breakdown of the methods of disposition.

Three of the major categories are divided into more specific case classifications with filing and disposition totals provided for each subdivision. Domestic relations cases are broken down into divorce, incoming reciprocal support, outgoing reciprocal support and all others. Felony cases are divided into felony D.U.I. and all others. Misdemeanor cases are categorized as misdemeanor D.U.I., traffic, and non-motor vehicle misdemeanor.

Caution should be exercised in using these statistics as a means of determining judicial workloads. Judges spend a great deal of their time counseling, researching, traveling and performing administrative tasks. Courts in metropolitan areas face heavy and specialized caseloads. In other areas of the state, the distance between the towns in which court is held, and the additional duties involved in working with multiple staffs, are factors which must be considered.

Additionally, due to a variety of circumstances, no two cases are exactly alike, although statistically, they are considered equal. Because factors are involved which cannot be shown quantitatively, these factors must be considered when intepreting the statistics.

ERRATA

Annual Report on the Judiciary - 1989
Statistical Appendix

We have discovered that the subject appendix contains an arithmetic error resulting from a misapplication of certain figures in the computer.

The error occurs sporadically in the column headed "Cases Pending 6/30/89." (The last column on pages reflecting caseload in litigation.) This is the closing caseload inventory and should be the arithmetic result of subtracting "Cases Disposed" from "Total Caseload."

The user of this appendix can arrive at the proper ending inventory by simply making the subtraction mentioned above. All other figures on the pages are correct.

Economics prevent the reproduction of this appendix in its original volume of copies, however, if you prefer to have a corrected copy please let us know and one will be provided by xerographic reproduction.

We regret the inconvenience caused by this error in computation of ending case inventory and will do all in our power to prevent its reoccurrence in the future.
